PROFANE SWEARING.—Thousands now reside in Oregon and California who swore their first oath on the plains. It is a useless, bad and ungentlemanly habit. The laws of God and man prohibit it. Even the Oregon statutes prohibit it.

Rev. Thomas Lightbody gives the following reasons why we should not use the name of our maker in vain;
1. It is sinful. Profane swearing is prohibited by the Most High as plainly as murder. From Sinai the words were uttered, "Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain." Alluding to oaths in common conversation, the Savior says, "swear not at all."
2. It is vulgar. The practice gives pain to all but the most abandoned. "It is" says Washington, "a vice so mean and low that every person of sense and character despises it."
3. It is inexcusable. He whose tongue is vibrating with oaths will generally admit that his conduct in that respect is altogether indefensible.
4. It is injurious. The profane swearer is a curse to the community, for he brings down upon it the judgment of Heaven. "Because of swearing," says the prophet, "the land mourneth."
5. It is unprofitable. The man guilty thereof is a fish caught by a hook to which there is no bait attached. He is a volunteer for Satan. He works for the devil and "finds himself."
6. It is dangerous. "The Lord will not hold him guiltless who takes His name in vain." The words of the profane swearer may, as he says, be "but wind." The wind, however, is one that blows towards hell.—Sentinel.

A WILD CAT TAKES A CHILD OUT OF ITS CRADLE.—On Tuesday of last week, a wild cat entered the house of Mr. E. Walters, who resides at Wilson's mill, on Toby Creek, Knox township, about seven miles north of this place, and took a young child from the cradle, and was about to commence devouring it when it was frightened away. The parents had gone out to gather in potatoes from a lot and left the babe wrapped up, sleeping in its cradle. A little girl was sent in a short time to see about the child and when she opened the door, was horrified to see a large wild cat with the infant behind the stove. The little thing was crying piteously, and in a short time would doubtless have been killed and devoured by the savage beast. On the alarm being given, the wild cat escaped through the window and has been seen in that neighborhood.—Clarion (Pa.) Democrat Oct. 1st.

MURDER IN YOLO COUNTY.—On Wednesday night, while a ball was being held in Cacheville, Yolo county two "sports" entered a saloon and quarreled with the barkeeper, and then left, threatening to come back and "clean him out." They shortly after returned, when one of them shot the barkeeper dead. The assailants have been arrested. No names were ascertained.—Cronicle.

BOLD ROBBERY.—On the night of the 24th inst. the store of M. Menor was entered by burglars and robbed of gold dust, coin, jewelry, and other articles of an estimated value of about $2,500. The entrance to the store was effected by cutting through a wall, 20 inches thick. The coin and gold dust was taken from an excellent combination safe which they entered by cutting through and removing the lock. A fine set of burglar's tools and a pair of boots were left by the burglars.

It is estimated that there have been 700,000 visitors at the 5 watering places this summer, as follows: Long Branch 200,000; Cape May, 150,000; Atlantic City, 150,000; Saratoga, 100,000; Newport, 100,000.

AN INFERNAL MISTAKE.—There were two pretty sisters who had married—one an eminent lawyer, the other a distinguished literary man. Literary man dies and leaves young sister a widow. Some years rolled away, and the widow lays aside her weeds. Now, then, it happens that a certain author and critic has occasion, on a broiling day in summer, to call on the eminent lawyer husband of the elder sister. He finds the lawyer pleading and sweltering in a crowded Court, sees that the lawyer is suffering dreadfully from the heat, pities him, rejoices that he is not a lawyer, and goes for a cool saunter under the sheltering trees of a fashionable park and garden.

Among the ice-eating crowd there he meets the younger of the two sisters, and for a moment thinks he is talking to the elder.

"Oh, Mr. —," said the lady, how dreadful hot it is here!"

"Yes, ma'am," replies our luckless critic, "it is hot here; but I can assure you the heat of this place isn't a circumstance when compared with the heat of the place where your poor dear husband is suffering to-day."

A horror-stricken expression came over the face of the lady; she rises from her chair and flounces indignantly away.—Cronicle.

LOST WOMEN.—My friend, has it never occurred to you what a commentary upon civilization are these lost women? A little child strays from the house inclosure and the whole community is on the alert to find the wanderer and restore it to her mother's arms. What rejoicing when it is found, what tearful sympathy, what hartness of congratulation! There are no harsh comments upon the poor tired feet, be they ever so mired; no reprimand for the soiled and torn garments; no lack of kisses for the tear-stained face. But let the child be grown to womanhood, let her be led from the enclosure of morality by the voice of effection, or driven from it by the scourge of want—what happens then? Do Christian men and women go in quest of her? Do they provide all possible help for her return? Do they receive her with such kindness and affection as secure her against wondering again? Far from it. At the first false step she is denounced as lost. Lost, echo friends—we disown you: don't ever come near us, to disgrace us. Lost, says society indifferently. How bad these girls are! And lost—irretrievably lost—is the prompt verdict of conventional morality, while on and all unite in bolting every door between her and respectability.

A DOUBLE LARCENY.—Before J. J. Murphy, J. P. of Salem precinct, yesterday Charles — was arraigned for stealing Ripperton's coat, hanging outside the store, valued at $25; plead not guilty; then confessed and threw himself on the mercy of the court, which mercifully sent him to jail for 30 days. This was not the only misdemeanor with which this man Charles was charged, for he had helped himself to a pair of ladies' india rubber shoes of Mr. Nichols, to which he also plead guilty and went up for another month's board on the strength of it. Charles is going to be boarded cheap this winter, and he lays his great good fortune to having been very drunk.

HOMICIDE.—This morning (Thursday 18th) our town is somewhat excited in relation to a murder committed yesterday in El Dorado. The particulars, as we learn them, are as follows: Some time during the day, J. McCourt, Esq., residing at El Dorado, and owning, or claiming to own some rich placer diggings in Rattlesnake Gulch, while passing along near an empty building in El Dorado, was fired at by some person secreted in the cellar. One or more of the buckshot (it was a shotgun) struck McCourt in the lower portion of the abdomen, close to the pelvic region, from the effects of which he died in about an hour afterwards.—Baker City Democrat.

MURDER IN YOLO COUNTY.—On Wednesday night, while a ball was being held in Cacheville, Yolo county two "sports" entered a saloon and quarreled with the barkeeper, and then left, threatening to come back and "clean him out." They shortly after returned, when one of them shot the barkeeper dead. The assailants have been arrested. No names were ascertained.—Cronicle.

CAPTURED.—The two burglars who robbed Menor's store were captured by Sheriff Klippel and Mr. J. McDonald, on Wednesday, near the State line. They had part of the stolen property in their possession. They were examined before Justice Wade and committed to jail. They gave their names as C. Hayden and V. Howe. The latter acknowledged that he committed the burglary. Hayden says the goods found in his possession were given him by Howe. Sheriff Klippel deserves credit for the prompt efficient measures taken in this affair.

THE PEOPLE'S LITERARY COMPANION. for November comes to us as bright and as fresh looking as the green fields are after a gentle rain. It is published by E. C. Allen & Co., Augusta, Maine. Terms, 75 cents per year. A fine Steel Engraving, entitled "From Shore to Shore," is presented to every new subscriber. It is really one of the most pleasing engravings ever before the public. The companion is printed on fine, heavy paper; its columns are filled to the brim with good things by talented authors, and withal it is one of the largest and finest illustrated family papers published.

STEAMER VANCOUVER.—This steamer is now lying at Vancouver, undergoing some of the finishing touches. She will be brought over to this city on next Monday, to receive the furniture and upholstery to her cabin, etc. After that, she will soon take the regular line.—Bulletin.

The kidnapping of children still goes on at New Orleans. The last case occurred on Thursday last, when a child between two and three years of age was seized by a burly negro, and would have been carried beyond the city limits but for the interference of a police officer, who had watched the man from an alley way in the vicinity, and subsequently arrested him. The case was afterward brought before the Record, but there was no conviction, it is said owing to the previous good character of the accused.

Let those who would revolutionize the practical relations of men kindly, lovingly, and boldly, meet every issue as it arises, and discuss it in a fearless manner, all affecting the right and interest of man, whether of white, black, or other color; whether male or female whether rich or poor, monarch or serf, slaveholder or slave, employer or employed.—*Frederic R. The expense of the war to Prussia are reckoned by Dr. G. Hirth, as follows: Cost of the military action, 1,250,000,000; of direct losses, 1,230,000,000; indirect losses, 2,250,000,000; war compensation for the reconquered territory, Alsace Lorraine, especially Straßburg, 200,000,000. Total, 4,930,000,000 francs.

South Carolina has gone 20,000 Republican. This is not to be wondered at when we reflect that her citizens always go upon extremes one way or the other. It is no place for Democracy now, but let the Democracy ever get the power again, and Republicans couldn't live in the State.

Gen. Banks and Gen. Breckinridge met at the Burnett House, in Cincinnati, the other day—the first time in a period of 10 years. They were young members of Congress together 15 years ago. The meeting was cordial on both sides.

—TO THE—

Nervous and Debilitated

WHOSE SUFFERINGS

HAVE BEEN

Protracted from Hidden Causes,

AND WHOSE CASES REQUIRE

to render Existence Desirable.

If you are suffering or have suffered, from involuntary discharges, what effect does it produce upon your general health? Do you feel weak, debilitated, easily tired? Does a little extra exertion produce palpitation of the heart? Does your liver, or urinary organs, or your kidneys frequently get out of order? Is your urine sometimes thick, milky or floccy, or is itropy on settling? Or does a thick seam rise to the top? Or is a sediment at the bottom after it has stood awhile? Do you have spells of short breathing or dyspepsia? Are your bowels constipated? Do you have spells of fainting, or rushes of blood to the head? Is your memory impaired? Is your a weak or restless? Is the lustre of your eye as brilliant? The blood on your cheek as bright? Do you enjoy yourself in society as well? Do you pursue your business with the same energy? Are your spirits dull and flagging, given to fits of melancholy? Do you feel as much confidence in yourself? If so do not lay it to your liver or dyspepsia. Have you restless nights? Your back weak, your knees weak, and have but little appetite, and you attribute this to dyspepsia, or liver complaint?

NOW, READER,

self-abuse, venereal diseases badly cured, and sexual excesses, are all capable of producing a weakness of the generative organs. The organs of generation, when in perfect health,

MAKE THE MAN.

Did You Ever Think

that those bold, defiant, energetic, persevering successful business men, are always those whose generative organs are in perfect health? You never hear such men complain of being melancholy, or nervous, or palpitation of the heart. They are never afraid they cannot succeed in business; they don't become sad and discouraged; they are always polite and pleasant in the company of ladies, and look eyes and them right in the face—none of your downcast looks or other manners about them. I do not mean those who keep their organs inflated by running to excess. These will not only but also those they do business with or for.

How many men, from badly cured diseases, from the effects of self-abuse and excesses, have brought about this state of weakness in those organs that has reduced the general system so much as to induce almost every other disease—

IDIOTCY,
LUNACY,
PARALYSIS,

spinal affections, suicide, and almost every other form of disease which humanity is heir to, and the real cause of the trouble scarcely ever suspected, and have doctored for all but the right one.

Diseases of these organs require the use of a Diuretic.

Helmbold's
Fluid Extract

is the great Diuretic, and is a certain cure for disease of the Bladder, Kidneys, Gravel, Dropsy, Organic Weakness, Female Complaints, General Debility, and all diseases of the Urinary Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter how long standing.

If no treatment is submitted to, Consumption or Insanity may ensue. Our flesh and blood are supported from these sources, and the health and happiness, and that of posterity, depends upon prompt use of a reliable remedy.

FRENCH MEDICAL OFFICE.

Dr. Julien Perrault,

Dr. of Medicine of the Faculty of Paris, Graduate of the University of Queen's College, and Physician of the St. John Baptiste Society of San Francisco.

PERRAULT HAS THE PLEASURE to inform patients and others seeking confidential medical advice that he can be consulted daily at his office, Armory Hall Building, North East corner of Montgomery and Sacramento streets, San Francisco, Rooms Nos. 9, 10, 11, first floor, up stairs, entrance on either Montgomery or Sacramento streets. Dr. PERRAULT'S practice has been almost exclusively devoted to the cure of the various forms of Nervous and Physical Debility, the result of injurious habits acquired in youth, which usually terminate in impotence and sterility, and permanently induce all the consequences of old age. Where a secret infirmity exists, involving the happiness of a life and that of others, reason and morality dictate the necessity of its removal, for it is a fact that a premature decline of the vigor of manhood, matrimonial unhappiness, compulsory single life, etc., have their source in causes, the germ of which is planted in early life, and the bitter fruits tasted long afterwards; patients, laboring under this complaint, will complain of one or more of the following symptoms: Nocturnal Emissions, Pains in the Back and Head, Weakness of Memory and Sight, Discharge from the U
